

Content Requirements for Qualified Admission
Psychology Courses

Each Qualified Admission Psychology course shall include instruction in all of the following topics:

- I. Ways to access information on the principles and principal proponents of psychological theories, using accepted methods of scientific inquiry;
- II. The biological basis of behavior, including all of the following:
 - A. Physiology of the brain and nervous system;
 - B. Physiology of the sensory systems; and
 - C. Perceptual processes;
- III. Learning theories and cognitive processes;
- IV. Theories of motivation and emotion;
- V. Human life span development;
- VI. Major theories of personality;
- VII. Major disorders of abnormal psychology and their treatment;
- VIII. How the individual, group, and environment influence human interactions; and
- IX. Other related topics as approved in advance by the Chief Executive Officer of the Board of Regents or the Chief Executive Officer's designee.