WELCOME

Chair Rolph stated Regent Ice, President Flanders, and himself met with Kansas Commissioner of Education Randy Watson and Kansas State Board of Education Chair Melanie Haas and Vice Chair Jim Porter. Typically, there is a joint meeting of the boards each year. However, scheduling complications prevented that this year. Chair Rolph welcomed Chair Haas and Vice Chair Porter to present on behalf of the KSBOE.

CONSIDERATION OF DISCUSSION AGENDA

Other Matters

KANSAS STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

Chair Haas presented the KSBOE vision, goals and postsecondary success metrics. She stated not all students are meeting the postsecondary success goal. Chair Haas noted both boards have agreed Kansas students can achieve success through our state's colleges. She stated they are working on making the Individual Plan of Study (IPS) process more meaningful and actionable to students. The IPS is a personalized plan that guides students and allows them access to college classes while in high school. She stated if a student gets 15 college credit hours before high school graduation, it will show the student they are capable and will foster lifelong learning. She stated KSBOE is committed to making a student's first 15 college credits an accessible reality for all Kansas high school students. She asked how the boards can work together to make that happen. Chair Haas called on the Board of Regents to work together with KSBOE to solve this problem together for Kansas kids.

Vice Chair Porter presented on dyslexia and structured literacy. He reported the KSBOE has limited higher education responsibilities except for developing, reviewing, and approving the teacher education program standards. Knowledge of the competence of using structured literacy is now a requirement for any potential program applying for a license. He stated reading is an essential skill. Vice Chair Porter expressed his gratitude that literacy is a goal of the Kansas Board of Regents and noted this is an outstanding opportunity to work together for the benefit of students. He asked the Board of Regents to continue to support and advocate for effective instruction and the implementation of structured literacy, support coordinated curriculum among Regents programs, and support an assessment process which allows students to demonstrate their knowledge. He requested consideration of a currently available assessment tool while one is being developed so the assessment process can start immediately.

Regent Lane thanked Chair Haas and Vice Chair Porter and noted their requests were consistent with anticipated Board goals. She stated the Board appointed a Dual and Concurrent Enrollment Task Force to help ensure opportunity and access across the state. The Task Force recommended that the Board and KSBOE approve a joint policy requiring every high school to offer dual or concurrent opportunities through a program called Diploma Plus. She noted this would align with KSBOE initiatives. Regent Lane expressed her hope that KSBOE would help develop and support a joint recommendation for Diploma Plus. She stated there is an item to be discussed in the Board's unified appropriations budget for College Navigators to help students, families, and high school faculty ensure students are on the right path. The Task Force also developed education award pathways that align high school graduation requirements and career and technical education requirements with the systemwide general education framework and systemwide transfer associate degree programs. Regent Lane extended an invitation to work together to develop more systemwide transfer programs. Chair Haas thanked Regent Lane for her comments and reiterated the need for the 15 credit hours of college credit citing those as critical. Chair Haas stated both agencies share the responsibility to educate students and families about the opportunities available to them.

Regent Winter asked about reading challenges affecting students. Vice Chair Porter stated the Legislative Task Force on Dyslexia made recommendations to the KSBOE that are being implemented. He noted the importance of reaching all students. Regent Winter thanked Vice Chair Porter for his commitment to advancing quality education. Regent Lane stated there is a task force working on the educator workforce, and structured literacy was elevated. The task force has been working rapidly to ensure quality. Regent Lane asked to work together to ensure alignment around standards in preservice programs, coordinated curriculum across institutions, common assessment tools, and micro credentials. She mentioned creating a goal to have Kansas lead the nation in the development of teachers in structured literacy. Chair Rolph thanked Chair Haas, Vice Chair Porter and Commissioner Watson on all their work and reiterated the Board's commitment to collaborate to move the initiatives forward.

RESPONSES TO STUDENT ATHLETE HEALTH CARE TASK FORCE RECOMMENDATIONS

Elaine Frisbie, Vice President of Finance and Administration, reminded the Board two years ago it authorized a review of the student health centers at the six state universities. The next year's Board goal was to examine the student athlete health care at the universities. A task force was formed and presented its recommendations to the Board in June of 2023. The U.S. Council for Athletes' Health (USCAH) assisted the task force with a comprehensive assessment and collaborated with each institution to produce a comprehensive report. The report was generated with strengths and opportunities at each campus understanding the recommendations would be implemented differently for each athletic department. The NCAA Division I schools will be presenting their responses today.

Nicole Corcoran, KU's Deputy Athletics Director and Director of Student Athlete Well-Being, stated KU partnered with the University of Kansas Health Systems and Lawrence Memorial Health to create Kansas Team Health in 2019. There were 40 staff who moved from Kansas Athletics to University of Kansas Health System and who now report through Kansas Team Health. She presented on the following growth opportunities:

- More diverse behavioral health options;
- Need for a medical review officer;
- More formal interaction between the health team physicians and the chair of orthopedics and sports medicine;
- Require coaches and staff to maintain CPR/AED training;
- More diversity, equity, and inclusion education as dictated by the NCAA;
- Nutrition evaluation process to include medical staff, administration, coaches, and athletes;
- Emergency Action Plans (EAPs) should be reviewed and rehearsed with student athletes and coaches annually similar to medical staff;
- Find more ways to promote health, safety, and wellness education on all topics to athletes, coaches, and staff annually;
- Create access for athletes to join identity-based support groups supervised by a licensed health care professional; and
- Create access to mental health support group for injured athletes.

Regent Winter thanked her for her presentation and inquired about lessening instances of sexual abuse by coaches and players. Corcoran stated every year she stands before every team with coaches and support staff to talk about reporting requirements, support resources, definitions of harassment and misconduct, and other relevant topics to ensure all athletes and staff are informed. Additionally, she stated the entire staff completes annual training requirements and they are doing everything in their power to prevent such instances. Regent Parasker asked if the University has measures to allow for comparison after their implementation. Corcoran stated KU Athletics has a survey system completed annually to gather information from student athletes and coaches to track satisfaction and usage. Chair Rolph thanked her for her time and hard work for KU athletics.

Matt Thomason, KSU's Senior Associate Athletics Director for Student Athlete Health, Wellness and Performance, thanked the Board for its proactive approach to student athlete health care. Thomason reported student athlete survey responses noting the student athletes had a very good understanding of the medical services provided to them and how to report concerns for their medical care. He highlighted KSU's current policy and procedure documents. The growth opportunities presented for KSU included:

- Work on formal agreements with team physicians;
- Work with outside providers annually to review performance evaluations with all athletic department personnel;
- Address annual review of strength and conditioning and mental health policies/procedures, including medical approval of all strength and conditioning programs; and
- Review and rehearse EAPs at least twice a year.

Thomason stated it is a NCAA requirement to have an Athlete Healthcare Administrator whose responsibility is the compliance with NCAA regulations and requirements, policies, compliance and education in the area of Health and Safety, and notification of updates and/or new guidelines/recommendations. He stated 8% of their annual budget is devoted to the health and wellbeing of student athletes.

Kevin Saal, WSU's Athletics Director, presented "The Shocker Way" mission, values, and student athlete development, and WSU's alignment of resources to expectations. He stated WSU has comprehensive strategic objectives in academics, community service, and competition that guide the work. Saal shared that last spring the student athletes achieved a 3.4 GPA department wide, which has never been accomplished at WSU. This is the 36th consecutive semester with a 3.0 or better GPA. He reviewed WSU's model, highlighting its partnership with Ascension Via Christi, which oversees athletic trainings and care. WSU's growth opportunities included:

- Enhance staff size and coverage – add staff for sports medicine, patient care, and a mental health and performance counselor. Replace three graduate assistants with full time employees. Explore adding a dietician or sports nutrition employee. Restructure the Shocker Health and Performance unit.
- Evaluate current policies for heat illness and heat stroke, exertional collapse associated with sickle cell trait, exertional or non-exertional collapse, asthma, and diabetic emergency.
- Policy education to coaches and student athletes.
- Formalize the process for onboarding new services and standard practices.
- Maximize synergy throughout all aspects of Shocker Health and Performance by establishing weekly meetings, formalizing a framework to process student athlete anonymous data, beginning monthly sport program support meetings, and installing daily readiness surveys.
- Identify best platform option for Electronic Medical Records.
- Utilize the Dynamic Athlete Research Institute Motion technology to help identify areas of opportunity then modify the strength and conditioning and athletic training programs accordingly. They will implement student athlete exit physicals as a baseline to satisfy the requirement to cover sport related injuries and health insurance for two years post student athlete eligibility.
- Nutrition – Expand existing fueling stations in locker rooms to include training table accommodations for all student athletes, coordinate care specific to athlete needs, coordinate with dining services for student athlete meal programming, and enhance educational programming.

- Facilities – Address equipment budget consistencies to better assess needs to enhance the available modalities, equipment, and resources.
- Compliance and education – Develop a strategic plan within the Shocker Health and Performance Team, formalize policy and procedure education, review EAPs, enhance health care programming, and establish a consistent culture of accountability.

Director Saal extended his appreciation to USCAH for its guidance as WSU pursues excellence in its growth areas. Regent Winter asked Mr. Saal if he believes the NCAA name, image, and likeness policy affects student athletes' stress. Saal stated he believes it is increasing stress in everyone, noting student athletes' experiences today are not consistent with the historical student athlete journey. Regent Parasker stated she was impressed with the in-depth report. Chair Rolph thanked the universities for taking this issue seriously and for their insightful reports.

BREAK

At 2:28 p.m., Chair Rolph called for a ten minute break. At 2:41 p.m., the meeting resumed.

KANSAS WORKFORCE OUTLOOK

Donna Ginther, Roy A. Roberts & Regents Distinguished Professor of Economics and Director for the Institute for Policy & Social Research at KU, presented data on job and degree requirements for 2030. The report considered the supply and demand of graduates from the state's public institutions of higher education, evaluated the demand for occupations with degree requirements in the state, compared rates of in- and out-migration in Kansas, and compared salaries for workers with degrees in Kansas and surrounding states. She utilized Bureau of Labor Statistics and Lightcast data for the ten-year projections. Dr. Ginther's report drew the following conclusions:

- Kansas needs to produce 34,000 additional degrees than it is currently projected to produce to meet demand in the next decade
- Kansas has relatively low net migration
- Kansas salaries are lower than surrounding states'

Dr. Ginther reported from 2020 to 2030 Kansas is projected to add 54,000 new jobs, with 67% requiring a bachelor's degree, 14% requiring a postsecondary non-degree award, 6% requiring a doctoral or professional degree, 6% requiring a master's degree, 5% requiring an associate degree, and 2% requiring some college but no degree. She stated most new jobs are going to require some postsecondary credential. Another 180,000 jobs that require a postsecondary degree will have the incumbent exit the labor force due to retirement or moving out of Kansas making a total of 234,000 jobs that will need to be filled with new graduates over the ten-year span. She provided a comparison to surrounding states for jobs requiring a degree, noting Kansas will add the second smallest number of those jobs. Kansas retains more people with associate degrees and certificates than other degrees.

Dr. Ginther reported Kansas exports graduates to Colorado, Texas, Missouri, and Illinois citing higher wages in Colorado and Texas. Kansas loses 10% of graduates by the 9th year after graduation. People with education degrees were most likely to stay in Kansas. She noted Kansas has an opportunity to keep graduates and recruit people to the state. As jobs grow, so does population. Chair Rolph stated universities are recruiting more students from Texas and inquired about a correlation in the Texas undergraduate and graduate population increases. Dr. Ginther stated people want to live in Kansas if they can find a good job. Kansas attracts young, educated workers predominately from Missouri, Texas, California, Nebraska, and Iowa.

Dr. Ginther presented a salary comparison between Kansas and nearby states, broken down by occupation, that used 2022 Bureau of Labor Statistics data. Salaries were adjusted for Kansas cost of living using a price index calculation to provide a more accurate comparison.

To conclude, Dr. Ginther stated based on demand projections, Kansas will need 34,000 more workers in the next decade with higher education credentials than are expected to remain in the state. Kansas exports trained workers to Colorado, Texas, and Missouri, with Missouri out-migration driven primarily by those moving across the border in Kansas City. Compared to surrounding states, Kansas pays low salaries which likely affects retention and migration. To increase the number of degree holders working in the state by approximately 3,400 a year, Dr. Ginther suggested:

- Work with the Legislature and KSDE to improve college readiness of K-12 students and maintain the affordability of KBOR institutions;
- Let employers know that higher wages elsewhere are attracting skilled labor out of the state; and
- Loan forgiveness programs for graduates in fields of high demand (e.g. nurses, engineers).

Chair Rolph thanked Dr. Ginther for her report then asked about what economic expansion was forecasted into the 34,000 additional employees needed for jobs. Dr. Ginther stated projections were not based on economic growth but rather population growth and the demographics of the labor force. It implies a forecast of the economic growth at 2.5% annually over the decade then they utilize that calculation to show an increase in the demand based on former projections. She noted assumptions are a part of forecasting. Regent Benson asked if she's seen improvements in numbers the last couple years as a result of remote work. Dr. Ginther reported they have not examined those numbers but they could. She stated to have the remote workforce, there must be broadband to support it. Regent Ice asked if remote workers retain the geographical wage differential when remotely working for employers in higher-wage states. Dr. Ginther stated that to attract workers, pay must be consistent with the prevailing wage in the national market. She noted data could be evaluated to understand if there is a remote work penalty. Chancellor Girod inquired why market forces have not corrected the salary differentials. There was discussion around the low growth rate in the state and population mobility.

Regent Lane thanked Dr. Ginther for her report and asked how to consider wages in terms of tuition rates. Dr. Ginther presented state spending as a tradeoff and higher education is discretionary for the state budget. Over time the state's overall support for higher education has decreased, and it is made up through tuition increases or other sources of financing. She stated there is a market for higher education tuition and a cap beyond which tuition is no longer competitive with other institutions. Dr. Ginther stated the burden has been shifted to the individual student by paying for higher education with loans. She indicated the state needs to consider how higher education is funded and the impacts of having an educated workforce. She reported it is in the state's interest to support higher education to promote economic growth.

Regent Parasker inquired about the potential solutions offered between a high school diploma and bachelor's degree given retention and completion data. Dr. Ginther stated they do not track data on certificates. She mentioned the question should be investigated to better understand opportunities. Over time, with a bachelor's degree people earn an increasing return to that degree. While credentials increase wages, the growth profile is lacking compared to the bachelor's degree growth profile. A bachelor's degree provides a skillset that allows people to continuously learn and improve. Dr. Ginther noted there will be a huge demand for skilled trades to manage the new projects around the country in the next ten to twenty years. There was discussion about student net migration and the economic impact. President Flanders stated the projections show 80% of the jobs will require a bachelor's degree or higher recognizing an acceleration in skill level. Dr. Ginther stated there is a high return for skill and a high demand for skill. Chair Rolph thanked Dr. Ginther for her presentation.

The Committee reviewed and approved the items on this month's Board agenda related to Fiscal Affairs. These included Wichita State University's budget for property tax revenues, the capital projects noted in the consent agenda, and ESU's capital project on the discussion agenda. The Committee also discussed the state distributions that will be before the Board tomorrow for the community and technical colleges for the Excel in CTE, AO-K and GED Accelerator programs. The Committee then reviewed the Board's unified appropriations request and the state budget process. It discussed each budget request item and questioned the state universities' CFO's on their campus-specific requests. Regent Benson noted all items on the appropriation request tie back to the strategic plan, but there are more needs than resources. Consideration of Discussion Agenda

Board Goals

BOARD GOALS FOR 2023-2024

President Flanders stated there was feedback on the Board goals from the academic officers which was discussed by the System Council of Presidents. President Linton and President Ruda expressed support of the Board goals. Regent Lane requested clarification on common entrance requirements and the level of involvement the Board would have in identifying certificates. Regent Parasker moved to approve goals allowing President Flanders to make clarifying edits, and Regent Benson seconded. The motion carried.

Goals

1. Strengthen early college programs with an emphasis on financing, common entrance requirements, expansion of concurrent enrollment opportunities, and deployment of College and Career Navigators.
2. Develop a statewide transfer associate degree in nursing to meet workforce demands in the state and facilitate on-time graduation for students. The system will identify at least 60 credit hours that a) complete the requirements for the transfer associate degree at community colleges; and b) transfer and apply toward satisfying the baccalaureate degree course requirements at the six state universities.
3. Enhance the partnership and alignment with the Kansas Department of Commerce in order to grow the state's economy. Institutions will focus on talent pipeline areas that align with the state's areas of growth and recruit and retain faculty with research expertise to support these industries.
4. Incorporate best practices in literacy education into teacher preparation programs. The practices will ensure that graduates are assessed and prepared to leverage the science of reading in teaching methods through intentional and specific course delivery.
5. Identify alternative credentials that are valued by business and industry and determine best practices for delivering these credentials and preparing students for success in the workplace, including an expansion of applied learning opportunities.
6. Conduct a program review utilizing the framework developed and approved in 2023 and make recommendations to optimize program delivery.
7. Continue to monitor implementation of the Student Success Playbooks at state universities.

Follow-up

1. Monitor and optimize reverse program transfer strategies to ensure students acquire credentials that they have earned.

2. Continue development of strategic plan metrics and incorporate newly adopted metrics into the dashboard.
3. Receive follow-up reports from state universities on the student athlete healthcare task force and monitor implementation of recommendations.
4. Receive reports from state universities on the adoption and implementation of their individual faculty workload policies.
5. Receive updates on the delivery of student mental healthcare services at state universities.

Fiscal Affairs & Audit

BOARD'S UNIFIED STATE APPROPRIATION REQUEST

Chair Rolph called for a robust conversation to refine the budget as a part of the annual budget process noting a plethora of good ideas. Elaine Frisbie, Vice President of Finance and Administration, noted some commitments made by the Legislature in FY 2023 that need corrections, such as the state employee pay plan and the restoration of rescinded funds related to ARPA funding for the Wichita Biomedical Campus project. For the current year, she reported the federal government has increased funding for the Adult Education and Family Literacy under the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act, therefore the amount appropriated for the state match needs to be increased. In July 2023, the Division of the Budget provided the budget allocation for FY 2025 which includes the base. Anything above the base is included as an enhancement. The items being discussed are the incremental adjustments added to the base allocation. It was noted all items are consistent with the Board's strategic plan. There was extensive discussion on various requests, resulting in eliminating and reducing some items.

Chair Rolph moved to amend the agenda by moving items VII.C.2, Act on Policy Amendment for Capital Project Approval Limits, VII.C.3, Amend the FY 2024 Capital Improvement Plan, and VII.D, Discuss Board Member Conflict of Interest Disclosure Statements, to Thursday September 21, 2023, after agenda item VII.B, Receive the Results of the FAFSA Challenge Awards. He also moved to begin Thursday with continuing agenda item VII.C.1. The motion was seconded by Regent Ice. The motion carried.
