What is federal student aid?
It’s money from the federal government—specifically, the U.S. Department of Education—that helps you pay for college, career school, or graduate school expenses.

How to apply for federal student aid
1. Create an FSA ID. Students, parents, and borrowers should create an FSA ID
2. Complete the FAFSA at fafsa.gov
Completing and submitting the FAFSA is free and quick, and it gives you access to the largest sources of financial aid to pay for college or career school—federal, state, and school sources.

When do I complete the FAFSA?
If you plan to attend college from July 1, 2018 through June 30, 2019, you’ll be able to submit a 2018–19 FAFSA beginning on Oct. 1, 2017. You’ll be required to report income and tax information from 2016.

Why should I apply as soon as possible?
Your FAFSA helps you apply for federal, state, and school financial aid. Schools and states often use FAFSA information to award nonfederal aid, and their deadlines vary, so apply as soon as possible. Check with the schools you’re interested in to find out about their deadlines. You can find state deadlines at fafsa.gov.

Do I need to apply for financial aid every year?
Yes, you must reapply for aid every year. Also, if you change schools, your aid doesn’t automatically transfer with you. Check with your new school to find out what you need to do to continue receiving financial aid.
